

Saturday, 26 April - Day's Activities

Vessel Examiners training, including test*

Dinner – bring appetizer or dessert to pass; we'll order pizza for dinner

General Meeting – there is plenty of room to hold separate meetings

DuPage annual auction

* This is also a review for current examiners. Dave Donkers will conduct training.

 If you have other ideas for dinner, let us know. Obviously, if any attendees have dietary/medical requirements we'll accommodate them. Pizza is an easy dinner.

Cost :

$5-7/person + bring dish to pass + whatever you buy at auction

(DuPage will provide beverages – water, pop and beer)

Where :

Reliant Data, 197 Alder Drive, North Aurora (P/C Joyce Bousquet business)

The office is about two blocks east of Randall and Airport Roads. The Oberweiss Ice Cream factory is on the corner of Randall and Airport. It's very easy to get to – if you're coming from Elgin, it's straight down Randall Road.

Time (times to be confirmed)

Noon-5 p.m. – VE training

6 p.m. – appetizers

7 p.m. – dinner

7:30 – meetings (and continued eating)

8:30 – auction (and continued munching)

Requirements for auction:

All items donated have to be in good working order.

All items have to have a useful purpose.

Items do NOT have to be nautical in theme.

One heck of a sense of humor.

(You do not need to bring anything for auction other than yourself and your checkbook.

Oh, yeah, don't forget to bring that sense of humor.)

RSVP:

VE Training – to Dave Donkers by (TBD); we need to order materials.

Dinner – by (TBD) (to be sure we have enough beverages)

Auction – by (TBD) (to be sure we have enough chairs)
